SoE Student Ambassador Program

Program Description:
Rutgers School of Engineering (SoE) is home to over 3,900 undergraduate students pursuing engineering degrees in: Aerospace, Applied Sciences, Bioenvironmental, Biomedical, Chemical and Biochemical, Civil and Environmental, Electrical and Computer, Industrial and Systems, Materials Science, Mechanical, and Packaging. Our faculty are leaders in cutting-edge research areas like: cybersecurity, renewable energy, and tissue engineering. More than 200 companies attend our career fairs eager to recruit our seniors. Who better to share the Rutgers- SoE story than our students! The SoE Student Ambassadors are a select group of student leaders charged with the responsibility of sharing the School’s mission and vision, along with their personal experiences. They participate in various public engagement events like: SoE campus tours, community outreach events, Engineer’s Week and the Rutgers Spring Open House.

Program Mission:
As advocates for the mission of the School of Engineering (SoE), we embody teamwork, diversity, integrity and service. By tapping into our experiences, we empower prospective students to find their niche within the Rutgers community, and by engaging in open dialogue between faculty and staff, we can develop and maintain transparency throughout SoE.

Ambassador Responsibilities:
1. Uphold a high standard of professionalism
2. Provide accurate and current information about SoE
